

- 1 How are slow players like meetings?
- 2 Why is slow play like "never-up, never-in"?
- 3 Why is slow play like how good a (car) driver you are?
- 4 How is slow play like junk emails at work?
- 5 How is slow play like bad breath?
- 6 Why is slow play like putting on your clothes?
- 7 Why are your slow play habits like a baby?
- 8 What does a video of your swing do that stop slow play efforts do not?
- 9 What do X Factor and Masterchef do that stop slow play efforts do not?
- 10 How should golfers be like survivors put in a lifeboat?
- 11 Which action helps most:
A 'Not marking card on the green' or
B 'Always catching up with the group in front'?
- 12 What is the key difference between the above actions
A and B?
- 13 What are the 2 keys to high-performing groups?
- 14 What can a FedEx parcel or Amazon order teach stop slow play?
- 15 What can statues teach us about stop slow play efforts?
- 16 What can stop slow play efforts learn from Head & Shoulders?
- 17 How is pace of play unlike every other golf stat?
- 18 Why does a SatNav work, and the leadership's stop slow play efforts don't?
- 19 What can stop slow play efforts learn from bankers?
- 20 Why are some slow players like horse and water?

The answers can be found in three groups on the following pages...

- A the individual
- B playing group
- C leadership